

Alice Springs, Australia

By the students of class 5C, collège Camille Vallaux, Le Relecq-Kerhuon, France

The Geography of Alice Springs

It is in Australia.

Australia is far from France.

Australia is bigger than France.

Alice Springs is in desert.

Alice Springs is a city in the center of Australia, in the northern territory and in the desert. Alice Springs is the third biggest city in the north of Australia.

This is the city of Alice Springs

The Charles River runs through the city. Canberra, the capital of Australia, is approximately 2,300 kilometers south-east of Alice Springs.

Alice Springs is founded in 1872. The surface area of Alice Springs is 148km² and its altitude is 576m.

There is no sea in Alice Springs.

There are three schools in Alice Springs.

Centralian Middle School

This is the enblem of Centralian Middle School :

The school is located at 56 Milner RD in the center of australia.
Centralian middle scool is a school next to the désert.
This is the Centralian Middle School of Alice springs:

The Climate of Alice Springs

Alice Springs's climate is hot and often very dry.

In Alice Springs the weather is really good in summer because it's really hot but in winter in Alice springs it's cold. The record temperature is 45,7°.

The average temperature it's 29 °. It's raining 396mm on the years. The climate are cool between January and may, and between august and December. The climate are perfect between January and April, between September and December.

The Population of Alice Springs

In Alice Springs there are 39 391 in 2020. 14,157 (49,8%) boys, 14 250 (50,2%) women. But the population decreases a little. There are a lot of tourist.

Things to see in Alice Springs

In Alice springs the places to visit are a lot of beautiful canyons with oasis and a panel on there is write "welcome to Alice sprigs" and the city.

There is a stone where they have engraved "Welcome to Alice springs"

There are a lots of vegetation in Alice Springs.

There are zoo, parks, and beautiful landscapes. Around Alice Springs there is desert. There're animals in the desert. The city is very pretty because there is Uluru, Larapinta...

Uluru is a big rock in the desert:

Larapinta. This is a path, it is 223km:

West MacDonnell Ranges is a excursion, there is a lot of animals and plants:

There is also:

- East MacDonnell Ranges is a rocky mountain landscape.
- Desert park is a space where several animals are at freedom:

- La telegraph station is at the origin of the city.
- Fossilized crocodiles from the Museum of Central Australia.
- Olive Pink, le botanic garden:

- The reptile centre:

